Cookies and Other Tracking Technologies

When you log on to ASAP Recruit, our Web server sends a cookie to your computer. A cookie is a small file asking for permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. If you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. By remembering information about your preferences the web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes.

Cookies merely recognize your browser. They do not identify you personally.

There are two types of Cookies: session and persistent-based. Session cookies exist only during an online session. They disappear from your computer when you close your browser software or turn off your computer. Persistent cookies remain on your computer after you've closed your browser or turned off your computer. They include such information as a unique identifier for your browser.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyze data about webpage traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. The information in the log files include your IP (internet protocol) address, your ISP (internet service provider), the browser software you used to visit our site (such as Internet Explorer, Safari or Firefox) and operating system types; click stream patterns; and dates and times that our site is accessed., We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

By enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and those you do not, cookies help us provide you with a better website. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

Importantly you can choose to accept or decline cookies.

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website. If you choose to block or erase your cookies, you will need to re-enter your original user ID and password to gain access to certain parts of the Web site.

ASAP Recruit uses session cookies containing encrypted information to allow the system to uniquely identify you while you are logged in. This information allows ASAP Recruit to process your transactions and requests. Session cookies help us make sure you are who you say you are after you've logged in and are required in order to use the ASAP Recruit application.

ASAP Recruit uses persistent cookies, that only ASAP Recruit can read and use, to identify the fact that you are an ASAP Recruit customer or a visitor who has registered to receive certain types of content. We are especially careful about the security and confidentiality of the information stored in persistent cookies. For example, we do not store account numbers or passwords in persistent cookies. Users or visitors who disable their Web browsers' ability to accept cookies will be unable to use all aspects of our Service.
